

FATHER'S DAY

By Donna Alexander

When asked to write this poem for this very special day,
Many memories came to mind as I pondered what to say.

A father is a leader, and will guide us as we go;
And oft' times he'll just hug us, his love for us to show.

Sometimes a father must be stern, and then may wipe our tears;
A father's jobs are many as he loves us through the years.

Today we honor fathers, as the 10 Commandments say,
But God wants us to love our dads, 'today' and 'every day'!

We honor earthly fathers with hearts just full of love,
By this we also honor our HEAVENLY FATHER above.
