

WHERE IS MY HOPE?

SCCC

S - Scriptures

“His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse, nor his delight in the legs of the warrior; the Lord delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love.” Psalm 147: 10-11

C - Consideration

In this Psalm like others hundreds of Biblical passages have been always the uncovering between religion and grace. In the verses above, trusting in religion is similar to put your hope in the power of a horse or a mighty man. Such behavior grieves the heart of God. It is like trying to get someone's needs, including salvation by earthly means, despising the true Savior, the Creator of the heavens and earth, including the horses and men.

C – Commitment

How easily when troubles or affliction comes to take my eyes from the Lord and try to put my hope in human resources. God gave man natural talents, to help me as doctors, administrators, leaders of nations, however, they are not God, they too are mortals, and I can use their abilities when needed, but the one I should always fear and place my hope is in the Lord.

C – Call

My Heavenly Father, how many times I acted foolishly, and I forgot that you alone are the one I always should call first. No matter what type of trial, I have to look at you, my God. You sent your Son to die for me on that cross, to give me what nothing on this earth could give me. It was an act of grace and mercy. Forgive me when I became blind because of pride. Help me my Father to glorify only in the cross of Christ, by whom this word should be always crucified to me, and I to the world, In Jesus' name, amen.
