

I AM A PRINCE

SCCC

S – Scriptures

“What I am saying is that as long as an heir is underage, he is no different from a slave, although he owns the whole estate.” Galatians 4: 1

C – Consideration

The apostle Paul reminded the Galatian Christians the importance to understand, meditate, and grow in the knowledge of the gospel. If they would not perceive in this direction, the blessings that Jesus had conquered on the cross will represent nothing, and although being kings and priests, they would live like slaves and beggars. It was like a son of a billionaire in captivity by thieves and unable to experiment the abundance of his father’s treasures.

C – Commitment

This Passage brought into my mind the importance to meditate in the Scripture day after day to remind me who I am, what I have and above all, who my Father is. The thieves such as the devil, my old nature, and this world will try daily to still the truth from my heart or to place me in bondage by neglecting the nourishment that God’s word provides for my spiritual growth.

C – Call

My Heavenly Father, thank you that I am your son. You loved me and will always do. Thank you for the greatness of our kingdom which provides everything that I need physically and spiritually. Thank you for the glorious future, you have for me and for the uncountable children you had adopted from the world by the death of Jesus. Than you that Christ, your Son will come to take us to our permanent home. I am a prince! In Jesus’ name, I pray. Amen!
